2. –When a decision is taken in the competition, each judge and the referee will have one single vote.
3. –The jury of judges and the revision panel will have the same authority on the match, final decision will be given to the Supreme Referee.

KUMITE (semi contact)

Basic Rules:

- One match will last for 90 seconds (CHILDREN) and 2 minutes (JUNIOR) and in case of extensions this will only be possible at the following categories: CHILDREN 14-15 YEARS OLD AND JUNIOR and will be of 60 seconds.
 - The Organizer of the championship and the Supreme Judge can change the duration of the matches.
 - In all the categories, a winner will be declared, whenever an Ippon is awarded or 2 Waza- aris (half points). This is similar as with the adult rules.
- Note: Two half-points (Waza-aris) are one Ippon.

EXTENSIONS (Enchosen)

It is only possible to have extensions in the categories CHILDREN 14-15 YEARS OLD AND JUNIORS (16-17) YEARS.

In the categories Children 14-15 years and juniors 16-17 years, whenever it is not possible to reach a majority decision based on the majority of the judges and a draw is declared, an extension of 90 seconds will be declared.

The extension should be 90 seconds with obligatory decision. (New suggestion)

TIME

The duration of the match will start from the moment that the referee says "Hajime".

VICTORY BY (IPPON)

1. Excluding the techniques which are considered fouls, one fist strike (tsuki) or a leg technique (geri) or elbow (hiji) etc. that one competitor execute on a recognized area of the body and puts down an opponent. As a result of a techniques a competitor loses the desire to continue to fight within 3 seconds or more, such technique will be considered Ippon.

IPPON will be valid whenever 3 out of 5 members of the referee team take such decision.

2. Whenever one of the competitors loses the will to continue to fight, the other competitor will be declared the winner by Ippon.

HALF POINT (WAZA-ARI)

On the following cases and always under the referees decision one half point Waza-ari may be awarded.

1. Excluding the techniques which are considered fouls, any strike realized with fist, leg or elbow, and causes effective effect on the other competitor. Or even puts down him/her for a period less than 3 seconds and then recover his/her position standing up or lose the desire to continue the match. Then he/she will be awarded (Waza-ari). Also whenever one competitor loses the balance after receiving a technique (fist or leg) a Waza-ari may be given under the criteria of the referees team. Two waza-aris are one Ippon.

2. Whenever one competitor is put down with a leg technique (ashi-kake) and completed with another one with no contact, and well directed to a recognized area, a Waza-ari will be given.

3. Whenever one of the competitors execute several times a leg technique (jodan) and such techniques counts with the recognized and necessary requirements like correct attitude, application, enough control, zanshin, timing or even distance according to the referees team criteria could be considered waza-ari. Also light contact on the helmet could be considered half point waza-ari.

VICTORY BY HANTEI

Whenever there is no Ippon or Waza-ari, a victory will be given by decision.

The decision will be valid whenever 3 out of 5 members of the referee team are in majority and take such decision.

This criterion to take such decision will have the following priority:

- The effect of the techniques.
- The development of combinations and variation of techniques, fist and legs.
